Letter from the Town Manager

Dear Tiburon Residents,

Having endured one of the rainiest Winter and early Spring seasons on record, albeit a much needed one, all of us here at Town Hall are eagerly awaiting the warmer, longer days of Summer. Although, I suspect anyone who spent time near the Tiburon waterfront this past weekend, came away thinking

Summer was already here. With the scores of sailboats gliding across the Bay, the lines of bicyclists patiently waiting for the ferry back to San Francisco, and the many families picnicking on Shoreline Park, it felt more like mid-July than the beginning of May.

Another sure sign of Summer is the beginning of the Tiburon Farmers Market! Starting this Thursday, May 4, the Farmers Market will run for 20 consecutive weeks between the hours of 3:30-7:30pm. The Town is excited to sponsor the Farmers Market again this year, and to be working with our partners from Agricultural Community Events and the Tiburon Chamber of Commerce. Together, we have put together an amazing market, with a line of vendors that makes my mouth water just writing about it. See below for a list of vendors we expect to see this Thursday.

Also on opening night, the Tiburon Chamber of Commerce will be hosting a Pig Roast with Chef Robert from Sam's Cafe. The pig will be served up at 6pm. Park at Point Tiburon's Parking Lot and get one hour free validated parking. Just bring your parking stub to the Chambers drink booth to get it validated.

So come join us on Main Street and fill up your bags with produce, take home gourmet soups, chocolate truffles, fresh fish, cheese, Indian food, pasta, Mexican food, ancient olive oil ....and the list goes on. I look forward to seeing you there.

Spring into Preparedness!

It's easy to forget that we live nestled between the San Andreas and Hayward fault line when it has been several years since the Bay Area experienced a major earthquake. As the saying goes, out of sight, out of mind ...

This spring, let's all do our part to Get Ready by updating our emergency supplies, dusting off those emergency plans and reviewing them with friends and family. Get Ready classes have been scheduled to assist you in preparing. If you haven't taken a Get Ready class before, now is a great time! Been a while since you have taken one? Come join me for a refresher and get inspired to prepare yourself, your home, and your family for any kind of emergency disaster. Learn about what resources can be found on the Peninsula and what plans are in place. Class information and other notable dates and tips are currently being broadcast on our local radio station (SNAP) at 840AM.

All Get Ready classes are free! The following classes will be held at the Tiburon Police Station in the Emergency Operations Center. Please call (415)789-2805 to sign up.

Thursday, May 4 (6PM - 8PM): Pack a picnic dinner and Get Ready!

Thursday, May 18 (4PM - 6PM): Afternoon Tea and Cookies

Sincerely,

Laurie K. Nilsen
Emergency Services Coordinator
