Upcoming CalTrans Roadwork on Tiburon Boulevard

This week, work will be performed at several locations along Tiburon Boulevard that may cause traffic impacts to motorists. Please plan ahead for possible traffic delays.

Tiburon Boulevard at Trestle Glen Boulevard Tiburon Boulevard at Ned's Way

Monday 10/11 - Tuesday 10/12: A Caltrans subcontractor will be excavating to locate underground utilities on Tiburon Boulevard at the intersections of Trestle Glen Boulevard and Ned's Way. The work is being done ahead of two projects Caltrans plans to construct in the near future that will add vehicle and pedestrian safety improvements at each intersection. Work will occur from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. and should have minimal traffic impacts as most of the work will be performed at or near the shoulder of traffic lanes.

Tiburon Boulevard at Blackfield Drive

Wednesday 10/13: A Caltrans subcontractor will be installing a new traffic signal controller at the intersection of Tiburon Boulevard and Blackfield Drive from 9:00 a.m. to approximately 2:00 p.m. The installation is one of the final steps in the intersection improvement project that has been under construction at this intersection for the last several months. During the time of the installation, traffic signals will be inoperable. Flaggers will be onsite to direct traffic as necessary.

Zonehaven Launched: Know Your Zone

The Marin County Sheriff's Office, along with all Marin municipalities and the Marin Wildfire Prevention Authority, have launched a new web-based evacuation mapping tool and "Know Your Zone" campaign to help county residents and businesses be better prepared for the next evacuation or emergency. Watch the video below to see Zonehaven in action.

The entire county has been divided into individual evacuation zones. Pre-established evacuation zones help first responders and emergency service agencies prepare before emergency strikes and helps streamline the evacuation process. Residents are encouraged to visit emergency.marincounty.org and enter their address in the search bar to learn their zone details before the next emergency.

Residents should also subscribe to Alert Marin to receive evacuation notices by call, text, email, or smartphone application. Zonehaven does not replace Alert Marin for notifications of evacuations or orders, but it does provide an intuitive tool for residents during the next evacuation or emergency.

Finally, don't forget to pick up your evacuation tag from the Tiburon Police Department. Keep your evacuation tag close to your door or in your go-bag. If evacuated, post the tag outside your door to let Tiburon Police know you have already evacuated your residence.
