

Daniel Amir

Planning Commission

Daniel was appointed to the Tiburon Planning Commission in 2017 and is currently serving as a commissioner. In addition to his duties as Planning Commissioner, Daniel serves as the President of the Belveron East Neighborhood Association and is on the board of the Wolf Connection, a non-profit with the goal of rescuing wolves and in assisting at-risk youth.

Prior to his appointment to the Planning Commission, Daniel has served as a commissioner and Chair of the Heritage and Arts Commission for the Town of Tiburon from 2012-2017. He was also a member of the Farmers Market committee for the Town of Tiburon in 2015.

Daniel grew up in Israel and works as a finance professional. He has over 20 years of experience working at Wall Street firms and in technology companies. Daniel holds a B.A. in Economics and International relations from the Hebrew University and a MBA from UCLA. In addition, Daniel teaches finance at the University of San Francisco and Golden Gate University as an adjunct professor.

Daniel has lived in Tiburon for 10 years. He and his wife Niran have three girls in the Reed and Tam school district and are actively involved in the Tiburon Peninsula soccer club and in congregation Kol Shofar. When not working or volunteering Daniel loves to travel, hike, spend time with his kids and ride his bike.
