

Erica Williams, MNA
Planning Commission

Erica Frances Williams is a nonprofit consultant in the San Francisco Bay Area with over seven years of experience in the nonprofit sector and fifteen years of experience in the legal sector. Erica specializes in nonprofit management, strategic planning, program evaluation, organizational development, and public policy analysis. She has an extensive background in legal research and writing. Erica is passionate about working with nonprofit organizations to build stakeholder and community relationships, develop cross-sector collaborations, implement strategic organizational change, and increase organizational effectiveness through internal and external dialogue. Erica is guided by an enduring commitment to public service, relationship-centered work, and achieving social impact through mission fidelity and data-driven decision-making.

She serves on the Volunteer Leadership Council (VC40) of the San Francisco Symphony; the Development Council of the Estuary and Ocean Science Center at the Tiburon Romberg Campus of San Francisco State University; and as Chair of the Tiburon Planning Commission.

Erica attended Swarthmore College and the University of California, San Diego, graduating summa cum laude with a Bachelor of Science degree in Political Science and a minor in Education. She subsequently attended the UCLA School of Law, and received the Witkin Award for Academic Excellence in Research and Writing, and the CALI Excellence for the Future Award in Research and Writing Award. Erica received a Master of Nonprofit Management degree from the University of San Francisco School of Management in May 2017. She is a member of Pi Gamma Nu, Pi Alpha Alpha, and Nu Lambda Mu.