

Jeff Tsai

Planning Commission

Jeff Tsai began service as a Planning Commissioner in 2018. He is a litigation partner at DLA Piper LLP in San Francisco. Prior to joining the firm, Jeff worked for several years in public service. He was most recently a special assistant attorney general in the senior leadership for former California Attorney General Kamala D. Harris. Jeff was also a federal trial prosecutor in the U.S. Department of Justice – as an assistant U.S. attorney in Miami, Florida, and a trial attorney in the Public Integrity Section in Washington, D.C. In Washington, Jeff additionally served as senior counsel to a former Assistant U.S. Attorney General. He received his J.D. from Georgetown University and his B.A. from the University of Texas at Austin.

Jeff is an active member of civic and professional organizations. He currently serves as a member of the Marin Healthcare District's Citizens Oversight Committee, which monitors the use of general-obligation funds to finance the Marin General Hospital's replacement project. In Tiburon, Jeff proudly volunteers time to the Foundation for Reed Schools in family-giving fundraising efforts and serves as a girls' softball coach.

Jeff has lived with his family in the Town of Tiburon since 2013.
