

Jon Welner
Town Council

Jon Welner has been serving on the Town Council since February 2018. He is the Town's representative on the board of MCE (formerly Marin Clean Energy), a Community Choice Aggregation program which provides renewable energy to hundreds of thousands of residents in Marin County and the East Bay. Jon also serves as the Town's alternate delegate to the Association of Bay Area Governments (ABAG), and he leads the Council's ad hoc Use of Technology subcommittee, which is investigating ways to improve residents' access to information and services through technology.

Prior to being appointed to the Town Council, Jon served for six years on the Tiburon Planning Commission and one year as its chair.

Jon is active in a number of nonprofit institutions and boards. He is a board member and president of the Osher Marin Jewish Community Center (JCC) and a former board member of Congregation Rodef Sholom. He also serves on the board of the John Gardner Fellowship Association and the advisory board of Stanford-in-Government.

Professionally, Jon is an environmental and land use attorney with over 20 years of experience. He is on the advisory board of the Environmental Law Section of the California Lawyers Association, and is a member and former Chair of the Environmental Law Section of the San Francisco Bar Association. Jon previously served as a senior official at the California Natural Resources Agency.

Jon has been a Tiburon resident for 15 years. He lives in the Belveron East neighborhood with his wife Pamela and three children. Jon and his family can often be seen on weekends hiking or biking along the Old Rail Trail on the way to breakfast or a movie in downtown Tiburon.
