

FOR MEMBER OF THE TOWN COUNCIL
TIBURON

KATHLEEN M. DEFEVER

Occupation: Attorney / Writer

Education and Qualifications: Kathleen has served Tiburon for 2 years on the Planning Commission, promoting much-needed downtown revitalization while also prioritizing the preservation of the town's unique, world-class appearance, open space and natural beauty. Kathleen supported the addition of the new Michael Mina restaurant and the Tiburon Visitor Center. She supports the arts, and in 2009 co-founded the successful, long-running opera program at Servino's Restaurant. Kathleen is an avid reader and is proud that Tiburon has not only maintained a vibrant library, but is expanding it to include more activities and educational resources.

Kathleen has a J.D. from DePaul University and an L.L.M. in Insurance Law from the University of Connecticut. She researches and writes about insurance law for legal journals and books, and has been engaged to speak about American insurance law at European conferences.

Kathleen's work on behalf of clients who have been denied their insurance benefits has prepared her well for the role of Town Councilmember. She listens closely and objectively to all parties, thoroughly researches the facts, and creates a solution to improve the circumstances of everyone concerned. She makes it a priority to keep an open mind, and is genuinely excited to hear the concerns, viewpoints, and ideas of her fellow townspeople.
